

CHÂTEAU DE BORDES-QUANCARD

Bordeaux

2013

Acquired in 1948, Château de Bordes reflects the deep rooting of the company in the Bordeaux terroir and its new momentum from the middle of the 20th century. Situated halfway between the company's head office in Carbon Blanc and the historic estate of Terrefort in Cubzac-les-Pont, the château originally housed a stud farm. The perfect link between a family, wine and horses!

Ageing potential

Ready to drink now, this wine will reach its full potential around 2021/2023.

Tasting

Subtle and distinguished, a very pleasant, elegant Bordeaux. The nose is rich and complex with blueberry, blackberry and elderberry mingling with toasted notes. The palate is well balanced, characterized by great purity and intense aromas.

Food pairing

Perfect with red meat, poultry and cheese.
