

Founded at the turn of the 20th century, this estate, which was then called Cru Latour Saint-Joseph, quickly proved its worth by gaining the status of "Château" as well as great renown within the village of Cissac-Médoc. The utmost care, including ageing in new oak barrels, is lavished on this prestigious wine which rubs shoulders with the equally famous vineyards of Saint-Estèphe and Pauillac.

Tasting

A Haut-Médoc that characterizes this superb vintage !

Beautiful, bright, deep ruby-red colour.

Delightful nose with aromas of wild berries, toast and mocha.

On the palate, this wine is full-bodied and generous, with ripe, smooth tannins and a remarkable aromatic palette, dominated by ripe berries coated with delicate notes of oak and dried fruit.

Food pairing

Perfect with red or white meat and cheese.
