

CHÂTEAU LA FLEUR CLÉMENCE

GRAVES BLANC 2019

The Château la Fleur Clémence is a property located in the heart of the land of Graves in the municipality of Landiras. The origin of this vineyard dates back to the 14th century; it was the property of François de Goth, lord of Landiras, nephew of Pope Clement V, who named it «Caillou d'Artigues». The entire vineyard extends on the southern slope of the Artigues hillside.

Tasting

In a beautiful pale gold color, this wine develops a bouquet with fine notes of citrus and white peaches. In the mouth, it is a sappy and fruity wine with a strong dominance Sauvignon's character during the tasting. Its tasty finish and its aromatic return make it a very successful wine.

Food Pairing

Enjoy with fish, crustaceans and white meats in sauce.
